ORDERS FOR PARADE GIVEN GRAND MARSHAL

Details of Formation Will Not Be Given Out for Publication Until March 3—Will Be Two Grand Divisions.

The formal orders for the formation of the parade on March 4 have been delivered to the grand marshal and are being held until March 3, when they will be given out for publication. The grand marshal does not wish to give out the details of the order for publication until the time is at hand for the formation of the parade.

There have been numerous discussions and careful consideration of the order and it is not desired that it shall be changed. From time to time people interested in the procession, thinking they have sufficient influence to have this or that organization moved up or down the line call on the grand marshal and his assistants to have the thing arranged. It is manifestly impossible to change orders after they have been issued without creating confusion and causing the grand marshal to be late.

Civil and Military.
Within the past few weeks great influence has been brought to bear from certain quarters to have political organizations of one kind or another given special places in line. There are to be something like 20,000 men in line all told, about 20,000 troops and 10,000 civilian organizations and clubs.

The arrangement of such a monster procession cannot be interfered with without seriously disturbing the proper organization. Despite this fact several vigorous protests have been made as to the assignment of certain of the political clubs and the march of the civil division has his hands full at all times keeping the peace between his organizations and their well wishers.

There will be two grand divisions of the parade, the first military, and the second civil. No armed and uniformed bodies of any kind will be permitted in the civil section of the procession. The cadets from West Point will have the lead of the column, coming directly behind the grand marshal and the march of the military division. Company B, of the Massachusetts militia, at Annapolis, will be next in line and the recruits of the United States Army will follow. These embryo warriors and rearmen will form the first brigade of the first division.

Second Brigade.
The second brigade will include a provision regiment, the coast artillery, and the Fifth and Eleventh regiments of infantry which have just returned from Cuba.

The third brigade of the first division will consist of the coast artillery, the Fifth and Eleventh regiments of infantry, and the recruits of the United States Army.

The fourth brigade will be made up of seamen from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The fifth brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The sixth brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The seventh brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The eighth brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The ninth brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The tenth brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

The eleventh brigade will be made up of recruits from the battleship fleet which just returned from its world cruise. These seamen will be followed by the recruits of the United States Army.

DEATH ROBBERS, IS SHOT TO DEATH

Chicago Saloonkeeper Refuses to Throw Up His Hands.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Richard J. H. Pink, thirty-five years old, a saloonkeeper, was shot to death by two highwaymen at 12:30 o'clock this morning while he was on his way home.

Pink, who was on his way home, was confronted by two men at an alley. Instead of obeying their order to throw up his hands he reached for his revolver and they fired.

One bullet came close to his heart, and he died soon after he reached county hospital. He told his story to the police while in the ambulance.

Later this morning the police found William Fitzgerald at his home suffering from a bullet wound. He was taken to the Frances Willard Hospital, where he died. The officers believe he was one of the men whom Pink shot.

HEIR TO A FORTUNE KEEPS HIS $40 JOB

Hotel Fireman Remains Calm When Told He and His Sister Are to Divide $50,000 Estate. Will Investigate at Once.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Feb. 28.—Informed to-day that he and his sister have fallen heir to $50,000, John Johnson, night fireman in the Boddy House, refused to become excited.

A letter has just reached Johnson from Denmark telling him that, as executors of an estate in Denmark, the writers were instructed to inform him that there now awaits him there a tidy fortune to be equally divided between himself and his sister, Mrs. Francis Meyer, of Detroit.

About eleven years ago Johnson received a letter from New York intimating that he was entitled to a large sum of money. He was advised at that time to send his full name and address and numerous other facts concerning his ancestry. He will immediately take steps to investigate all the details of his legacy.

Johnson is forty-eight years old and for the past three years has been employed in the Boddy House as fireman at $40 per month. He will not quit his job.

MANY DO NOT GRADUATE.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 28.—About one-fourth of the men who have entered Yale University failed to graduate. This is shown by the records obtained for a non-graduate catalogue which has been in preparation for several years, and which is soon to be published.
